Course and Certification

The Start/Finish line is located at the intersection of Fillmore Street and Cruise Street in downtown Corinth, two blocks west of the Courthouse. The course is 10,000 meters, certified by U.S.A. Track & Field, certificate #MS93001RH.

Walkers Welcome

Anyone interested in registering to walk the course is highly encouraged to participate. Walkers will receive all the freebies and benefits that runners do — including free merchandise, medallion, food, flowers, and a prize drawing. The finish line will remain open for two hours after the start. This equates to a 20 minute per mile pace.

ONLY REGISTERED PARTICIPANTS WITH AN OFFICIAL RACE NUMBER WILL BE ALLOWED ON THE COURSE.

Safety

For the safety of all concerned, the course is restricted to runners, walkers, self-propelled wheelchairs (under WSUSA rules; helmets and brakes required) and official racing strollers. DOGS, BICYCLES, ROLLER SKATES, ROLLER BLADES, WAGONS, SKATEBOARDS, MOTORIZED WHEELCHAIRS ARE NOT ALLOWED. PLEASE DO NOT WEAR HEADPHONES.

Disqualification

Anyone who does not follow the safety rules listed above, who does not follow appropriate starting procedure, who jumps into the race along the course, or who does not follow generally accepted rules for the safe and fair conduct of a running event, may be deleted from the official results and disqualified from the Coca-Cola Classic 10k for up to two years.

IMPORTANT — DO NOT SWITCH NUMBERS

with anyone or give your number to someone else. Only participants with a number will be allowed on the course. If you forget your number on race day, please get a replacement number at registration when your pick up your chip.

Packet Pick Up

Race packets include 100% cotton t-shirt, race number, instructions, etc. Packet pick up will be at Refreshments, Inc., Corinth, on Friday, May 4th, from 8:30 am to 4:30 pm. Remaining race packets will be given at registration on Saturday between 7:00 and 8:00. We cannot be responsible for shortages in t-shirt sizes for race day registrants.
